

May | June 2011

IOWA HISTORY

Journal

BILLY TILGHMAN:
From Fort Dodge
to legendary Old West hero

ELVIS in Iowa!
The King was here five times

Battle of Credit Island:
When foreign troops
fought in Iowa

How the caucus became a key to Iowa politics

MAY/JUN 2011 • $3.50

Editor & Publisher:
Mike Chapman

Adviser:
Nancy Shaw

Office Manager:
Bev Chapman

Layout & Design:
Mike Finn

Contributing Writers:
Peter Hussman, Arvid Huisman,
John McNeer, Alan Cross, Bill Sherman,
Buck Turnbull, Michael Swanger,
Jessica Lowe, Bill Duffy and Don Doxsie.

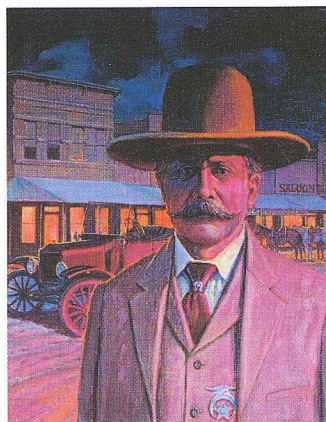

Advertising Representative:
Atlas Media Group LLC
5721 Merle Hay Road, Suite 28
Johnston, IA 50131
Office: 515-657-6383
Contact: Michael Reese

IHJ Subscription Services:
Call 641-792-0920 or visit our website:
www.iowahistoryjournal.com

Address changes:
IHJ, P O Box 293, Newton, IA 50208
To ensure delivery, send us your old and new address at least four weeks before moving. Forwarding mailing costs are paid by subscriber and lost issues can not be replaced.

On the Cover

This portrait of Bill Tighman by Harold T. Holden hangs in the Oklahoma State Capitol Senate Lounge. "H" was born in Enid, Oklahoma. He has won numerous gold medals for his paintings and sculptures of the West from the Texas Cowboy Artists Association and the National Western Artists Association. His studio is near Kremlin, OK, where he lives with his wife, Edna Mae. (More information at hholden.com).©

Contents

3
Publisher's Perspective:
Iowa schools
are flunking
In history!

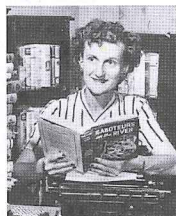

4
The Lawman:
Fort Dodge's
Billy Tilghman
kept the peace
by Alan F. Nelson

9
Elvis Presley held court in Iowa 5 times
by Michael Swanger

11
Iowa Country Roads:
Old school picnics were something special
by Arvid Huisman

12

12
Nancy Drew mystery took roots in Iowa
by Jessica Lowe

14
Credit Island battle made Iowa history
by Kyle Martin

16
Palmer College traveled a rocky road to success
by Don Doxsie

IOWA HISTORY Journal

Volume 3, Issue 3
May / June 2011

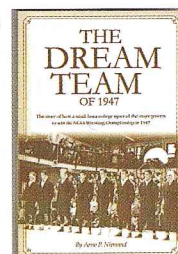

19
Iowa caucuses have bizarre background
by John Skipper

22
The Way We Were:
Older citizens were held in higher regard
by John McNeer

23
Jack Fleck made golfing history in 1955
by Buck Turnbull

27
What's In a Name:
Harlan named after a friend of Abraham Lincoln

29

29
Book Review:
Sports books focus on three top coaches

31
Iowa History Quiz

36
Letters to the Editor