

WESTERN HORSEMAN

World's Leading Horse Magazine Since 1936

April 1987

$1.95 U.S.

$2.50 Canada

WH 737530HLDH49149 SEP87 1
HAROLD T HOLDEN
BOX 49 RT 1
AWN
OK 73753

Conditioning the Equine Athlete and Trainer Training

WESTERN HORSEMAN

World's Leading Horse Magazine Since 1936

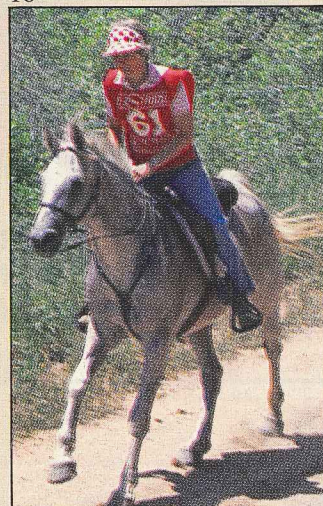

April 1987

Vol. 52, No. 4

Contents

18

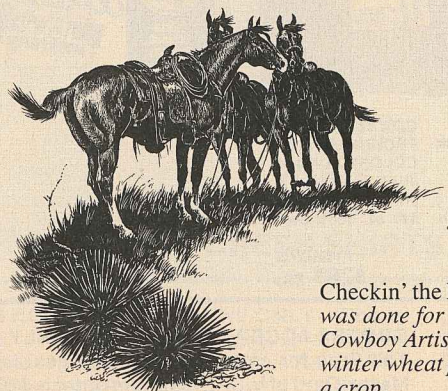

36

48

- 18 GRINGO IN GUADALAJARA. A visit to Mexico's 'Charro Championships.' Randy Witte
- 28 LEARNING ON THE TRAIL. Students take to the high country to learn packing and mountain horsemanship. Robert M. Miller, D.V.M.
- 30 STILL AT HOME ON THE RANGE. Tom Blasingame; 89 years in the saddle. Part 2, Conclusion. Barney Nelson
- 36 CONDITIONING THE EQUINE ATHLETE. Horses, like people, need gradually increasing amounts of exercise to build to top performance condition. Jack Galt, D.V.M.
- 45 'SHOEING DOESN'T KILL HORSES.' Charges made in a national advertising program are not true, says the American Farrier's Association.
- 46 POTSHOTS. A cartoonist on safari in the world of photography. bjb
- 48 PICTURE PERFECT. Here are the winners of the amateur photo contest.
- 54 PIONEER PAINT HORSE BREEDER. Junior Robertson. Phil Livingston
- 68 COLT AND TRAINER TRAINING. Pat Wyse explains his 30-day breaking and training program. Part 1 of 2 Parts. Pat Wyse/Georgina Campbell
- 74 CPR IN THE NEWBORN FOAL. Knowing how to apply CPR to a foal whose heart is not beating or who is not breathing might save his life. Robert M. Miller, D.V.M.
- 82 RODEO TEAM. A pair of rodeo horses are used for pulling a hay wagon in the winter. Dick Spencer
- 88 TEAM ROPING. A second-grader explains all the rules. Kerri Deal
- 90 BLACK BART OF DRY GULCH RANCH. A young mammoth jack helped propel an Oregon couple into the donkey business. Sybil E. Sewell
- 96 AN APRIL FOOL TRADITION. What started as a joke years ago continues every year. Maxine Wright Hughes
- 100 LEADING A PACK STRING. A jillion things can go wrong, but you can prevent some of them. Mike Bressler
- 104 1986 LONGHORN DRIVE. Driving cattle beats driving trucks. Marie Batdorf
- 108 THE ARABIAN ACTION SHOW. This first-ever show of its kind spotlighted working Arabians and awarded $50,000 in guaranteed prize money. Pat Close
- 120 INHERITANCE IGNORED. A poem. Robert M. Miller, D.V.M.

Columns & Departments

- | | | | |
|----|----------------------|-----|-----------------|
| 6 | LETTERS FROM RIDERS | 78 | GALLERY |
| 12 | PONY TRACKS | 84 | RODEO ARENA |
| 63 | HERB MIGNERY CARTOON | 92 | YOUNG HORSEMAN |
| 64 | BUNKHOUSE BOOKSHELF | 98 | WESTERN PREVIEW |
| 66 | BUNKHOUSE RECORDS | 105 | COMING EVENTS |
| 72 | BACON & BEANS | | |

The Cover

Checkin' the Feeder is the title of this oil painting by Harold Holden of Kremlin, Oklahoma. The painting was done for the book The Texas Cowboy (Texas Christian University Press, Fort Worth), by the Texas Cowboy Artists Association. The cowboy is checking the supply of supplemental feed for stocker cattle on winter wheat pasture. The cattle will go to a feedlot later on, and the wheat will then grow and mature for a crop.